A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Greetings and hope you had a Happy Thanksgiving.

If you are a new resident to our neighborhood – Welcome! We're glad you joined us. If you've been with us for a few years, or many like myself (18 and counting) we're glad you continue to call the Sanctuary your home.

We're proud of our neighborhood and I'm thankful for not only the many volunteers who work on our various committees which assist the HOA board, but also for the numerous homeowners who take pride in maintaining their properties. Your hard work is what continues to make this a desirable community to live in. We literally can't do it without your help.

We survived the hurricane season once again, with a few bumps and bruises as many of you with blue tarped roofs know only too well. And due to the hurricane debris residing on our properties way past anyone's estimate, quite a few of us have some remedial lawn care to attend to. Nothing a little time and TLC won't fix.

The board wishes to remind new and existing homeowner's alike, that we are (and always have been) a deed restricted neighborhood. As such, we have a body of rules, called the C&Rs which govern what is and is not allowed in our neighborhood. It's the reason most of you purchased here versus elsewhere. And it is what makes our properties not only more desirable, but more valuable as well. Please help us maintain our pristine neighborhood by checking our property manager's website to review the current C&R's whenever you contemplate painting your home, redoing the roof, adding a fence or modifying the landscape. Items like those and others as well, require review and approval of our ARC committee prior to making any modifications. Their efforts are one of the reasons the Sanctuary continues to look as good as it does, now 20 years later.

Thank you for making the Sanctuary a great community and enjoy the coming holidays.
